MILWAUKEE and MADISON MILK PRICE LEVEL

TO REMAIN THE SAME

Prices paid farmers for their milk in 12 midwestern milk market areas for the next three months will remain the same as those in effect in November, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has announced.

Agriculture Secretary Orval Freeman, acting at the request of dairy farmer groups, postponed a scheduled 20 cent drop per hundredweight for class I milk scheduled for Dec. 1.

Instead, prices for class I milk will remain the same through the end of February. In the Chicago milk market area, the price has been $4.30 per hundredweight for class I milk.

The drop of 20 cents per hundredweight now has been scheduled to go into effect March 1 and run through the end of June.

At the same time, the USDA postponed the resumption of public hearings on a proposed increase in the fluid milk

MILK ORDER HEARINGS

SET AT GREEN BAY

The U.S. Department of Agriculture held a public hearing in Green Bay Dec. 9 to consider temporarily keeping fluid milk prices to farmers at their November 1965 level, under the Michigan Upper Peninsula and Northeastern Wisconsin Federal milk orders.

The orders set minimum prices to dairy farmers, but do not regulate prices consumers pay.

USDA's consumer and marketing service officials said the hearings opened at 10 a.m. in the Holiday Inn, U.S. Highways 41 and 32 at Green Bay. It was requested by cooperative associations of milk producers supplying each of the two markets.

Proposals were brought before the hearing on the need for emergency action to maintain fluid milk (Class I) prices for December and immediately ensuing months, at approximately the same level as was effective in each of the markets during November, 1965.

prices in the 12 midwest areas.

The hearing began Sept. 20 in Chicago, was recessed Nov. 3 and was to have reconvened Nov. 20. The postponement was made to allow dairy farmers more time to file additional proposals.

The 12 midwest milk marketing areas are Chicago, northwestern Indiana, suburban St. Louis, Rock River Valley, Milwaukee, Wis.; Madison, Wis.; Quad Cities-Dubuque, Iowa; Ozarks, Cedar Rapids-Iowa City, Iowa; North Central Iowa and Des Moines, Iowa.

The hearing provided opportunity for everyone interested, including farmers, milk dealers, and consumers to present evidence on any emergency conditions relative to the need of amendment or suspension action.

After considering evidence presented at the hearing, USDA may recommend changing the orders. The recommendations would be subject to approval by at least two-thirds of the dairy farmers serving each of the areas, before the changes could be made.
